A GOOD INLAID GEORGE III OVAL TEA CADDY

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA255014*Date of manufacture: 1750

Description

A good example of a late 18th century George III OVAL TEA CADDY in excellent original condition. Veneered overall in figured harewood, the top carries its original cast "bow" handle within an oval marquetry panel, whilst the front is inlaid with marquetry flowers, leaves and swags. The interior retains its original oval lid and much of the original lead lining. A nice one.
