Description

A spectacular Pair of solid mahogany HALL CHAIRS almost certainly by GILLOWS of LANCASTER.* Of unique design these lovely chairs incorporate flame mahogany panels to the upper rail, flanked by carved "ears"; a convex oval section to the backs (sometimes painted with Coats of Arms etc.); solid oval seats and ring-turned tapering legs which splay outwards. The rear legs are united by a bold "beehive" stretcher ~ again a typical Gillows feature.

*Some similar features can be found in an illustration of a Hall Hchair in "Gillows of Lancaster" by Susan Stuart, Volume 1, Plate 179.
