Description

A wonderful set of six William IV regency rosewood dining chairs. This set of 6 19th century chairs have stuff over upholstered seats in a pale blue hard wearing fabric. The saddle shaped balloon back and carved central splat enhance the look. The rear shaped sabre legs and front turned legs with inverted lotus leaf detailing further add to the appeal of these chairs. This item of furniture has been sympathetically restored and wax polished to enrich the delightful patina and colour. Circa 1835. Excellent condition. Measure 18"h x 18"w x 34"h
