Description

A quality antique tan leather upholstered armchair with strapped back circa 1910-1920's. This lovely French leather armchair is retaining most of its original leather giving it a very nice natural look. It has a shaped back with an unusual leather strap and buttoning which falls on to a pair of scrolled arms. Raise of tapering oak legs and castors this antique leather chair is very comfortable with a sprung back and seat. In very good condition back and sides look to have to been replaced along its lifetime which blend in nicely and a small mark on the back which has been restored and is not noticeable. Seat height 16 inches - 41 cm Seat depth 19 1/4 inches 50 cm
