Description

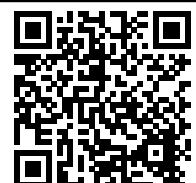

A handsome and comfortable late 19th century walnut revolving desk chair. The frame bares a kite mark and the cabinet makers stamp of 'J B Delaney' of Birkenhead .Being sensitively and professionally restored the chair still retains a pleasing surface, colour and patina - all indicative of its age. An unusual and decorative flag motif is carved to the central splat - suggesting it may have been a commission from a shipping or steel company. The drop in seat is original; the hand coloured leather covering is a recent addition. The castors are original, and they are in good condition. Due to slight wear, the kite mark cannot be used to pinpoint the age of the piece Max width 22 1/2 inches Max depth 21 " Height 31 " Height to top of seat 19 1/2 " Please contact us by email or phone if you require any further details. Carriage is nearly always carried out personally within London, Surrey and Sussex - Delivery is free for clients within mainland Britain - Professional, competitive and trusted courier and shipping companies are engaged for the remainder of our customers.
