Description

Quality English Chair - Victorian Chippendale Revival - c1890 This hugely attractive late Victorian period English side chair offers classic Chippendale style and is presented in good antique condition. It will serve wonderfully as a bedroom chair, hallway feature, dining chair or morning room piece. A well proportioned and classically styled chair with seat upholstered in a quality needlepoint textile. The seat pad is the 'drop-in' style and therefore recovering would be straightforward should your room design demand so. The chair is a quality example with a strong mahogany frame presenting a pleasingly intricate and ornate back-splat with hand carved and wonderfully decorated top rail. Riding upon desirable cabriole front legs with a fully grasping long talon claw and ball foot and pleasingly carved knee. To the rear the chair benefits from a single stretcher. At the front a straight rail with carved edge creates a pleasing aesthetic. The whole chair benefits from a lightness of tone to the mahogany. The supportive seat offers a rewarding seating experience with the useful seat height of 46cm (18.1") and a very generous width of 60cm (23.6"). The piece is soli...
