SoldItem Reference: SA258339*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A Georgian Pine Sectaire Chest of Drawers The front of this Chest of drawers disguises its most useful feature, what appears to be the top two drawers are in fact a Sectaire or desk. When the top is pulled forward and the front let down we can see the fitted interior of pigeon holes and stationary drawers, the fall forms a writing desk and below there are two more very deep storage drawers The top of the chest has a moulded edge, there are square columns down each side of the desk and it sands on turned wooden feet, the original escutcheons are Ivory but the brass handles have been replaced This is a rare piece indeed, it is made from the best quality pine, it has been stripped and waxed, there are no signs of woodworm only the usual dings acquired with age The Sectaire is 47" high, 47" wide and 24" deep, the desk top height is 29" RL23 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, to see all of our current stock please visit our web site at www.elmgarden.co.uk All our items are covered by the Distance selling Regulations.
