SoldItem Reference: SA259274*Date of manufacture: 1700

Description

A charming and unusual antique oak spindle back side chair dating from the late 17th century /early 18th Century, circa 1700. The moulded top rail above four ball-turned spindles within square uprights with in-srolled finials, the boarded seat on ball-turned and blocked legs with peripheral stretchers. Most likley Northern English in origin. Lovely warm colour and patina. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Fairly wobbly to the back - but more suited as a decorative chair than one of everyday use. A split across the seat. Wear and marks commensurate with age. One of the spinldes is probably a replacement. Dimensions: Width: 19" Depth: 15.5" Height to seat: 16" Overall Height: 37" Delivery: £29.95 to mainland England via courier Other areas of UK please contact us for a quote
