Description

Large French Panelled Elm and Fruit Wood Coffe, Table This is an unusual piece normally found in French Farm worker's cottage, where space was very limited, the coffer would have been used to keep food in (much like an English Bacon Settle) The lid of the coffer opens by sliding forward on runners, in this way the inside can be accessed and also the top serves as a table top for dining. The chest dates from around 1800, it has 3 panels on the front and back, it stands on sturdy square legs. This is a very heavy piece the top is made in Elm, 4 planks which are over 1" thick and beautifully patinated. A truly superb piece and will be very useful in any Farmhouse kitchen with storage under the table top. The Coffe measures 69" wide x 27" deep and stands 30" high DL273 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, to see all of our current stock please visit our web site at www.elmgarden.co.uk All our items are covered by the Distance selling Regulations.
