Description

A delightful neat sized Regency mahogany sofa table with boxwood stringing and reeded legs terminating in brass casters. This early 19th century piece is in lovely condition. It has 2 drawers to the front (mahogany lined) and an identical faux back. It is 37" wide and 53" wide with the flaps up. Just over 22" deep and 28.5" high. Good small proportions. A very smart piece that needs to be seen.
