SoldItem Reference: SA260420*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A late Georgian Somerset mahogany longcase clock. A light mahogany case with banded line inlays. A swan-neck hood pediment with finial. Corinthian brass capped fluted hood columns. Chamfered trunk sides. An attractive arched painted dial with floral corners. Date aperture and seconds dial. An 8-day duration mechanism striking the hours on a bell. James Webb & Son worked in Frome from 1785 - 1851. There are a number of longcase clocks illustrated in AJ Moores' 'The Clockmakers Of Somerset' book by these makers. From Kembery Antique Clocks Ltd you can expect a genuine antique clock with a written 12 month guarantee which has been serviced to a high standard. To our UK customers we offer to personally deliver and set the clock up for you. For our International customers please email us and we can give you a competitive price for professional packing, crating and sending. Instructions to set the clock up are included and full paperwork for customs.
