Description

A stunning antique Victorian spoon back chair in walnut with extensive and crisply carved bead and ribbon decoration. It stands on turned and reeded legs culminating in its original pot casters. It has been recently reupholstered in a racing green velour-type fabric, button backed and trimmed with a lovely contrasting gold braid. In good clean condition, it appears to have been quite recently re-upholstered. The carving is extensive and detailed and makes this stunning chair just that bit more of a piece. Construction/Wood: Walnut Condition Report: In good solid condition. The carving is crisp and extensive and the upholstery is new. General wear and marks to the frame commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width: 23" Depth: 19" Height to top of Seat: 15" Overall Height: 36" Delivery: £39.95 to Mainland England via Furniture Courier Other areas of UK please contact us for a quote
