Description

Set of 8 early C19th Regency period mahogany dining chairs. Comprising 6 single chairs and 2 carver armchairs. Superb quality set of chairs of generous proportions, with boldly carved top-rails with sun-flower head paterae, acanthus-leaf and gadroon detail and with raised centre-panel reserve, together with stylish leaf and paterae/draught carved splats. Top-grade dense timber with no breaks or damage. This completely 'fresh to the market' set of 8 dining chairs have been sourced locally from a 'time-capsule' property where they have stood for nearly 200 years. Great original condition, strong, stable design and robust construction, with elegant turned X-frame stretchers and well-defined turned legs on 'onion-shaped', or toupie, feet. Removable drop-in seats, all with stamped numbered rails. Have been cleaned and waxed in our work-shops and seats pads can be re-upholstered to clients specification if required. Pair of armchairs H (back) 38". Seat H 18" x W 21". W (arm to arm) 23". Singles H 36". Seat H 18" W 20". England c. 1820.
