Description

Quality Small Bureau - Edwardian Mahogany - c1910 An original English Edwardian writing bureau with splendid fitted interior presented in excellent condition. Rising from shaped bracket feet the lower chest offers useful storage with four drawers and a flame mahogany veneer set against solid brass pierced swan neck handles. The drawers are indicative of the quality of the whole with solid oak linings. The bureau section presents a fall front with working lock and key. This opens to reveal the tooled and embossed leather skiver and brass hinging. Within the fitted interior are a pair of drawers, cubbies and letter slots with a very pleasing centre storage with mini tambour rolling door. Overall a very desirable example in super order with attractive cross-banded flame veneer and original lock escutcheons. A bureau of smaller proportions delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. Suitable for daily use if required.
