Description

Good 18th century George III three tier dumb waiter. Made from lovely grained mahogany especially the round tiers. Tripod base with carved columns, nice shape feet with original leather bound castors. There are no cracks or repairs to the tiers although they no longer rotate if they ever did. No breaks to the legs. One of the tiers bears an old paper label for EDWARDS & ROBERTS of LONDON who obviously retailed it at some point in its past. The whole piece is a gorgeous colour with great patination. SIZE; Bottom tier is 24" diameter. Stands 45 1/2" high
