Description

A large and handsome antique George 3rd period open armchair in mahogany. This charming open armchair has a lovely crisply carved back splat in a Chippendale style design. The out-swept arms have crisply carved acanthus leaves to the hand rests and have shaped and curved. It stands on square shaped legs and has a drop in seat. It has been newly re-upholstered in a beautiful, top quality leather hide from Hulshof Royal Dutch Tanneries from the Old Saddle range in a dark reddish brown colour called wine. Lovely warm age to the mahogany, a beautiful statement piece. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Solid condition. Old mend to the upright of the back splat - quite a messy mend to the back, but solid enough. Newly reupholstered in dark brown/red leather. Dimensions: Width across Front: 24" Depth : 20" Height to seat: 19" Overall Height (max): 38" Delivery: £34.95 to Mainland England via Furniture Courier Other area of UK please contact us for a quote
