Description

A superb quality late regency William IV rosewood circular round dining table. This wonderfully figured centre center hall table is mellow in colour and would sit equally well with walnut or mahogany although we have a set of six rosewood chairs that are a good match to this table. This tilting tilt top tripod table retains its original brass securing catch and is very stable being raised on three substantial carved cabriole legs (rather than the less desirable platform base) and octagonal turned central stem on swivel castors. This piece of furniture retains a wonderful colour and has been traditionally polished to a rich colour and is ready to place in your home. Circa 1835. Excellent condition. Measures 50" diameter x 30" high.
