SoldItem Reference: SA264571*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A handsome early nineteenth century box, originally made to store gloves and today used as a table or desk-top box, perfect for storing a variety of bits and pieces, particularly popular for the storage of pens. Made from Rosewood, the top is beautifully inlaid with cut Mother of Pearl with a complimentary inlaid escutcheon to the front. The lid of the box is framed in a carved beading, typical of the William IV period. The interior has been re-lined in a hand-marbelled paper, creating a fresh and clean finish, ready for use. Excellent condition, measuring 9" x 3 1/2" x 2". Item ID: 35427 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
