Description

Quality English Georgian Chair - Leather Seat - c1740 This attractive George II period English side dining chair offers classic pre-Chippendale style and is presented in good antique condition. Dating from around 1740 it will serve wonderfully as an office seat, bedroom chair, hallway feature, dining chair or morning room piece. A well proportioned and classically styled chair with seat upholstered in a quality leather hide. The chair is a quality example with a strong mahogany frame presenting a pleasingly structured back splat, serpentine top rail and flared corners. Riding upon sought after cabriole front legs with a pad foot and charmingly carved knee. The chair benefits from a stretchered base of early Georgian form, and a warm tone to the mahogany. The supportive seat offers a rewarding seating experience with the useful seat height of 46cm (18.1") and a generous width of 57cm (22.4"). The chair is solid of joint and an ideal chair for daily use. A versatile, collectible original English Georgian chair which will make a lovely addition to any location.
