Description

Pair early C20th French marble-topped wrought iron console tables. Decorated with applied cut-brass leaf embellishments and floral motifs, great pair of tables to bring symmetry to a hall, orangery or conservatory. Of serpentine outline with interlaced loop design to friezes, stylised open 'cabriole' supports, scroll feet and shaped under stretchers. Could benefit from having decoration refreshed, but at present have a distressed original cream paint finish with some over-paint to gilt brass-work. Very stylish and chic look, and rare to find a matching pair. Fitted with loose, moulded-edge figured Italian 'Travertine' marble tops which are in perfect condition. H 30" x W 33" x D 15". France c. 1920
