Description

It's very likely this is the only time we will see something quite like this, a real find. This silver plated breakfast set is signed on the underside by the top-notch English silversmith, Mappin Brothers of Sheffield and London, dating to around 1890, Victorian in era. Of naturalistic form, made up from tree branches, the top is crowned with a handsome Cockatoo. The set has a three piece cruet in cut crystal, Open Salt with spoon, a pepper pot and a mustard pot with spoon. The middle has two egg cups with egg spoons sitting on their rests, and above is a working bell to call the maid for more toast!!! The far end has a toast rack made up again from tree branches. A really special piece in superb condition. 13 1/2" x 8 1/2" (max) x 10 1/2" tall. Item ID: 35411 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
