Description

Victorian Oak Table - Lions Mask & Barley Twist - c1880 A well presented and solidly constructed English oak Victorian table presented in good antique condition. With a central lions mask and quality thickset barley twist legs. The desk provides superb practicality and would serve as a hall piece, buffet server table, feature display table or as an item of utility furniture. Rising from a lower tier with carved frieze through the barley twist legs into an upper providing a carved moulded edge detail - all is excellently presented. The shaped & carved lions mask upstand to the rear adds as the finishing touch to this well proportioned classic.. Overall a desirable example in very good order.
