Antique English Cut Glass & Sterling Silver Match Strike - 1880

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA268262*Date of manufacture: 1880

Description

A rather special example of a Victorian spherical match strike beautifully cut all-over and inset with a lovely sterling silver top. The sterling is engine-turned acting as the strike for a non-safety match or vesta, matches will not accompany the strike. There is a lovely crisp hallmark for Birmingham 1880, making this a lovely early example. The makers initials are also present for the quality silversmith, John Grinsell & Sons. Superb condition, a real gem in excellent condition. Approx. 2 1/2" in diameter x 2 1/2" tall. Item ID: 35348 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly from London, England
