Description

Superb William IV mahogany side-table by Samuel Oxford street. This superb 19thc side-table was made to the highest quality. The fine carving to the drawer front is exquisite. The end supports have fine acanthus leaf carving and fluted turned supports. The base and ends are co-joined by finely turned spindles that meet in the centre with an oval tablet that again has light carving. This is an exceptional piece of William IV furniture, that is so refined and a pleasure to the eyes. The drawer is lined in pencil cedar.
