Description

A fine pair of hallmarked silver salt tubs from the mid eighteenth Century. These handsome collector's items date from the reign of George II and have hoof feet and blue glass liners. Silver dating from this early is becoming ever more scarce and these fine examples would make good additions to a collection. Condition :- Very good with no holes or splits. One tub has a couple of small dimples commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Softening but readable. Maker :- John Munns. Diameter :- 6.5 cms. Height :- 3.25 cms.
