Description

Delightful little late 18th.c. potboard dresser c.1790. Of unusually small proportions, standing just 72" tall and 64" wide. Traditional shelved rack, with molded cornice, original cup hooks to the upper shelf and shaped 'shoes'. Over a particularly good three drawer base with dummy spice drawers and simple inlaid detail, a shaped centre leg and original potboard. Excellent colour and condition, original knobs and drawer linings. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops.
