Description

A stunning Edwardian sofa in beech with shaped top rail and carved bottom rail. It has one long and four short stretchers with ring turning. This lovely sofa stands on Queen Anne style legs and has stylish curved sweeping arms. It has a regency design fabric in green and cream which has a few marks, stains and blemishes on it. There is some give to the webbing - the upholstery is in useable condition, but would benefit re-upholstery. A stylish statement piece of furniture, that would look lovely in a hall, a bedroom or under a bay window.

Construction/Wood: Beech. Condition Report: Good condition. Fairly solid - some slight give to the front legs. A few small scuffs to the frame. Some small stains, marks and blemishes to the upholstery. Some give to the webbing - upholstery in useable condition, but would benefit re-upholstery. Dimensions: Width: 41.5" Depth: 18" Seat Height: 15.5" Overall Height: 36"
