Description

A charming collector's item from the Victorian era and assayed at the sought after Chester Office. This is a silver hat or bonnet brush. It has a silver handle with foliar and cherub design and a horse-hair bristle. It would have been used for removing dust etc. from top hats or bonnets. A lovely piece for the collector of Victorian daily life. Condition :- Very good. the bristle is in fine condition, with barely any wear and the handle has a couple of knocks around the rim and dimples to the cartouches (photo 4), commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Maker :- James & William Dixon. Length :- 19 cms.
