Description

This is a very old piece indeed, in the main it dates from the 17th Century, though there has over the years been a little maintenance. The estate cupboard enclosed a secretaire in the upper section; this is opened by lifting up the front half of the top and opening the carved doors to reveal drawers and pigeon holes, at the back of a writing slide which draws out from beneath. The panelled oak doors have quite ancient carvings of kings on the lower doors and geometric patterns on the upper doors; the writing slide is covered in blue baize, this is not original and neither are some of the interior slide locks. The cupboard is 47" high, 42" wide and 24" deep FR458. We give free delivery to mainland England & Wales; to see all of our current stock please visit our web site at www.elmgarden.co.uk.
