Price

SoldItem Reference: SA271548*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A highly decorative and nicely painted 19th Century oil portrait of a bishop. The canvas appears to have been previously stuck down on board (hence glue marks to the reverse) and is no longer on it's original stretcher, consequently the canvas is not as taught as it should be and there are some small areas of paint loss but no holes. Mounted in a later gold painted frame. Measures 74cm x 57cm (excluding frame) 89cm x 72cm (including frame)
