Sold*Item Reference: SA271766*Date of manufacture: 1890

Description

A most unusual and highly collectible table lighter in silver plate. The central light is in the form of a castle turret and either side, what appear to be Lighthouses. The central light would have been filled with fuel and the wick lit. The two "Lighthouses" have a lid that removes each a long "torch", the ends would be wrapped in a fuel soaked smaller pick and lit from the central flame. The underside has a full mark with the makers initials TL over EM for the silversmith, Thomas Latham & Ernest Morton. Dating to the late Victorian, this unusual gem is in excellent condition. 7 1/4" x 5 1/4" deep inc. handle x 5 1/2" tall.
