Description

Fully restored and service with a 12 month warranty. This is a beautiful example of a large 18ct gold plated Victorian striking and repeating carriage clock dated to around 1890. It has a stunning 18ct gold plated case with a shaped fold down handle which is in mint condition having just undergone full restoration and replating. This is NOT a polished and lacquered brass case and being 18ct gold plated it will not tarnish or deteriorate, only a light dusting with a cloth is required. The original enamel dial and glass panels are in perfect condition with no chips, cracks or hairlines. The movement is of an exceptional high quality and has a platform escapement, it runs for a full 8 days and keeps excellent time. It strikes on the hours and half hours on a tuned coiled gong and has a repeater button which strikes the previous hour. The movement is in excellent clean and running condition having just undergone a complete and comprehensive overhaul by Alan Williams who is a Fellow of the British Horological Institute so you can be assured that this clock will give trouble free service for many many years before requiring any further attention. It comes complete with ...
