Description

A rare Edwardian silver half sovereign case from the sought after Chester Assay Office. This charming piece has engraved ivy leaf decoration, a sprung and engine turned press dispenser and an attaching ring. The ring would be for attaching to a fob chain or chatelaine. These delightful collector's items are increasingly difficult to find and this is a particularly appealing example. Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or breaks. The spring is strong.

Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Matching part mark to the attaching ring. Maker :- Payton, Pepper & Sons Ltd. Date :- Chester 1903. Diameter :- 2 cms. Depth :- 1 cms.

Internal Ref: 9629
