Description

Quality Writing Bureau - Edwardian Mahogany - c1910 An original English Edwardian writing bureau with fitted interior presented in excellent condition. Rising from cabriole feet the lower chest offers useful storage with a trio of full width drawers and classic solid brass swan neck handles. The drawers are indicative of the quality of the whole with solid mahogany linings. The bureau section presents a fall front with working lock and key. As this opens it automatically extends the flap supports. Inside there is a writing surface and fitted interior showing arched cubbies and a central drawer. Overall a desirable example in super order with highly attractive quartered flame veneer. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. Suitable for daily use if required.
