Description

A fine oil on canvas depicting a brace of dead pheasants, laid out on crumpled paper. The painting is very skillfully handled with large brush strokes used to create single feathers. In all a very well executed and detailed painting being rich in colour and an accurate depiction. The painting bears a signature stating SOAR lower left bottom corner, but I have been unable to identify the artist. FRAME The work is mounted in a modern quality bespoke made frame, blue in colour to bring out the colour in the painting. CONDITION The whole is in excellent condition throughout and is ready to hang.
