SoldItem Reference: SA273955*Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

An unusual hall lantern with three curved glass panels set in a decorative brass frame with three lights in the centre. It is a lovely, quality item, possibly European dating from around 1910-1940. The brass is slightly darker in colour than appears in the first photograph, the true colour is shown in Photos 3 and 4 but we haven't polished or lacquered it. It measures approximately 57cm (with additional chain to the ceiling) and 25cm across. It has been rewired for the UK market and comes with an original ornate ceiling fitting. The price includes postage and packaging within the UK mainland only but we can obtain quotes for other deliveries. Collection and/or viewing in Surrey can be arranged.
