Description

A wonderful and most unusual desk-top accessory, a combination double postage stamp box and moistener. The case is made from English sterling silver hallmarked for Birmingham 1918, so 96 years old, and made by the well renowned silversmith, Deakin and Francis. The hinged lid opens to reveal the glass double stamp box and what makes this a real treasure is the combination with a stamp moistener. Water would be placed below the wheel that moves around to moisten the back of the stamp. Excellent condition, measuring 2 1/4" x 2 1/2" x 1 1/4" tall.
