Description

A really wonderful example, and a large size, with the lid having a diameter measuring 3 1/2". Made from sterling silver, the box stands on three charming little legs. What makes this one rather special is the magnificent Lilac colour, with the enamel in perfect undamaged condition. The photograph of the box on it's side is more of the true colour, quite stunning. The box opens to reveal a velvet lining. The box has a full English hallmark for Birmingham 1924; the makers initials H.C.D are also present for the silversmith, Henry Clifford Davis. One tiny ding to the side (see photo, mentioned and shown purely for accuracy). Excellent condition, standing 1 3/4" tall.
