Description

Almost certainly by GILLOWS of LANCASTER: a lovely quality and most elegant LADY'S SEWING or WORK TABLE in "Bird's Eye" Maple, and of a lovely warm golden colour. Below the beautifully figured top, with its twin leaves, are two drawers, both with original turned handles, the lower of which is fully fitted with compartments; trays and a pin cushion etc., whilst below is the silk-pleated "U" shaped wool/embroidery drawer, which slides forward. It is supported on well turned solid legs which terminate in the original brass castors. Fully free-standing with "dummy" drawers to the reverse side. Superb original condition.  There are a number of features of this table than can be found in illustrations in the book "Gillows of London and Lancaster" by Susan E. Stuart. Of particular note are the recessed "panels" either side of the drawers and the original handles which are turned to the front facets.
