Description

A highly decorative William IV era jewelry box which would easily lend itself to a desk box or something similar. Made from two exotic timbers, Rosewood and Amboyna (the most expensive timber in the world), together they create a stunning and striking box. The top is inlaid with pewter stringing and discs of Mother of Pearl. Each side retains it's original turned Rosewood ring handle. The inside of the box has been relined in a hand-marbled paper to create a fresh and clean finish. Excellent condition the box spans 13" handle to handle; the lid measuring 12" x 9" and standing 6" tall. Item ID: 35657 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly from London, England
