Date of manufacture: 1750

Description

A lovely, Chippendale mahogany chair with a drop on seat. This chair, of generous proportions has carving to the top rail (see detail), a pretty splat and arms that have carving to the front (although the left hand arm has been so heavily used that the carving can hardly be seen!) . The H stretchers make it a good robust chair and it is in excellent condition. The seat has been reupholstered.
