AN EDWARDIAN BRASS LAMP

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA279148*Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

This was probably an old oil lamp base converted into a lamp and dates from the early 20thC. It has a lovely round, solid base and a tall corinthian column. It measures 42cm up to the base of the lamp holder, and the round base is 21cm in diameter. The central column is 28cm in length. We have rewired it to UK specifications and the weighted base has been covered with felt. It can be viewed in the Surrey area, alternatively Postage and Packing within the UK mainland only has been included in the price.
