Description

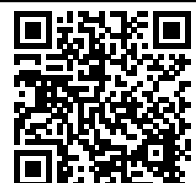

A wonderful and very decorative Victorian biscuit box in a lovely oval shape, made from a hefty piece of English crystal, exquisitely cut with a hobnail cut underside. The fittings are made from silver plate, fully marked for the well renowned silversmith, J.H. Potter of Sheffield. The collar on the box is decorated with a continuous ivy leaf design. The top of the lid is beautifully engraved and the very elegant handle is used to operate the opening of the hinged lid, always a highly sought-after design. Dating to around 1890, the box is in superb condition, measuring 8 1/2" x 5 3/4" x 8" tall to top of handle. Item ID: 35779 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly from London, England
