Description

Wonderful original late Victorian / Edwardian crossover ring. Sweeping and elegant, this is just the sort of treasure we love discovering. It's unusual so the diamonds a running down the twist of rings of this design - and it's doubly rare to have the two main diamonds mounted in bezel settings; a delicate and unique ring which would be perfect for a delicate and unique woman. Cut - Old cuts. Colour - H. Clarity - SI. Carat - The two diamonds in the crossover are 0.10 carat each, so 0.20 carat total. Condition - Fine. The band appears to have been replaced somewhere down the line, but is in perfectly sound condition. Circa -1905. Size - Currently O (UK) or & (US). Complementary sizing is available, can go up or down. Measurements - Setting is 16mm by 5.5mm and sits 3.5mm from the finger. Metal - 18k and Platinum, clearly marked inside the band.
