Description

FINE George III mahogany toilet mirror of a lovely shape and in fantastic original condition with great colour and patination. The base which is bow-fronted has three drawers, all of which are mahogany lined with tiny fine dovetails. Boxwood line round the edge and original brass knobs. Ogee bracket feet. The top of the base has a narrow tulip-wood banding and a boxwood line round the edge. The uprights are a lovely shape with original ivory patera to them top and bottom. The lovely shield shape mirror has the original bevelled glass. The brass mirror fixings are also original. The patination and colour are superb. The only small thing to say against it is there is very slight old wear and damage to the bottom edge of a couple of the feet but this is minor in the extreme. SIZE; 17" wide by 8" from front to back by 24" high overall
