

SA282989

Oak, rosewood and mahogany Shropshire Longcase Clock

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA282989*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

An oak and mahogany crossbanded Shropshire longcase clock. A swan neck hood pediment surmounted by an original brass finial. Turned mahogany hood side columns. A diamond marquetry inlay to the trunk door with rosewood crossbanding. An attractive square painted dial with floral decorations and a date aperture. A 30 hour duration mechanism striking the hours on a bell. William Phillips of Ludlow is recorded in Elliott's 'Shropshire Clock and Watchmakers' book as working in Castle Street until 1851. Height 6ft 10 "/> 208 cms

Seller Details

Kembery Antique Clocks Ltd

Bristol United Kingdom

Tel: 0117 956 5281

International Tel: +44 117 956 5281

