Description

Splendid large pair of Regency era pedestals c.1820. Probably originally part of a very large sideboard they feature a 13" tall bottle drawer over cupboard space plus second shallow drawer hidden in the top. Plenty of good decorative detail here with brass inlay, flame mahogany door and drawer fronts, twist carved columns and bead mouldings all raised on spectacular carved lion's paw feet. Excellent colour and condition retaining the original brass ring handles. Key supplied. Dimensions: width 21", depth 24", height 48".
