Description

DESCRIPTION A SOUGHT AFTER PORTRAIT AT A VERY REALISTIC PRICE. This is a beautifully painted oil portrait on canvas by the artist SYDNEY WALES WHITE, who has signed the painting in the lower left hand corner. The portrait by repute is considered to be of Lady Randolph Churchill, a very attractive lady in her middle years, depicted wearing a cream evening dress, with her hair swept up and wide, in Edwardian style. She has a long string of pearls around her neck and a black ribbon choker to match the belt and ribbon trim on the sleeves of her dress. She has a red rose corsage at her waist. ABOUT LADY RANDOLPH CHURCHILL Lady Randolph Churchill, born Jan 1854 – Died 29 June 1921), born Jeanette Jerome, was the American-born English wife of Lord Randolph Churchill and the mother of British Prime Minister Winston Churchill. Jeanette Jerome was born in the Cobble Hill section of Brooklyn in 1854, the second of three daughters of financier, sportsman, and speculator Leonard Jerome and his wife Clarissa and was raised in Brooklyn. Lady Randolph was a talented amateur pianist, tutored as a girl by Stephen Heller, a friend of Chopin. She was married for the first time on 15 April...
