Description

As part of our oriental collection we are pleased to offer this fine quality Japanese Kinchaku (coin purse) with its original kagamibuta netsuke, the purse is very finely embroidered in a Peking type of stitch, the clasp is solid silver and depicts a spray of iris, the Netsuke is formed from an ivory roundel with a solid silver inset disc again finely cast as iris, the two are joined together by way of a multi strand silver chain, the purse opens in two sections and closes tight on a clasp. The condition is simply lovely, minor wear where the ojime rests upon the top of the purse otherwise much better than expected given its age and intended use! Approximate sizes Purse 5.5" 14 cm x 3.5" 9 cm Netsuke 2.25" 6 cm Free worldwide delivery included in the price of this item.
