

SA287705

Dorothy Burroughes -
Toadstools, Watercolour,
Signed with Monogramme

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA287705

Date of manufacture: 1930

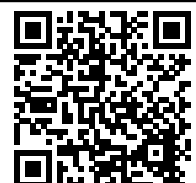

Description

Dorothy Burroughes (died 1963) - 'Toadstools', watercolour, circa 1930, monogrammed top left. In original mount and frame. The reverse with an exhibition label for the Society of Women Artists. 27cm x 23cm not including mount and frame. Dorothy Burroughes was an illustrator, designer and linocut artist. She contributed to a number of magazines including The Bystander and Illustrated London News. She became well known for her illustrations of animals, which appeared in numerous books in the 1920s and 1930s and designed posters for London Underground in the 1920's. She exhibited widely including the Society of Woman Artists and in 1934 had a solo exhibition of her watercolours at the Fine Art Society.

Seller Details

Hand of Glory

Hand of Glory Antiques 34 Market Place Chippenham Wiltshire
SN15 3HP United Kingdom

Tel: 07867 305451 or 01249 447478

International Tel: +44 7867 305451 or +44 1249 447478